Notes:

- An Information Bulletin will be provided at each Panel meeting, containing relevant briefing information of potential interest to the Panel. There will be opportunity for the Panel to put questions to the PCC in relation to any of these items. Items expected to feature regularly in the bulletin are:
  - Update on the PCC's decisions made since being reported to the previous Panel meeting
  - Update on how the PCC is addressing the solved rate performance for Domestic Burglary and Serious Sexual Offences (regular update requested at 5 July 2013 Panel meeting)
- The decisions and views taken by the Panel are separate to and independent of those taken by local authorities in Suffolk.
- For further information on any item appearing on this forward work plan, or if you wish to discuss possible items for future scrutiny, please contact the Chairman of the Police and Crime Panel.
